

Plains Anthropological Society
Distinguished Service Award
Call for Nominations

The Board of Directors of the Plains Anthropological Society (PAS) is seeking nominations for the 2022 Distinguished Service Award. This honor, formalized in 1991, recognizes outstanding service to the Plains Anthropological Society and lifetime achievement in Plains anthropological research and scholarship, teaching, and service to the profession. Nominations may be submitted by regular mail or email (attachment as a single pdf) and must include a letter with justification of the nomination, brief synopsis of the nominee's career and contributions to the Plains Anthropological Society and Plains anthropology, a complete vita, and multiple letters of support from others. More than one award may be given in a year.

Past recipients include Waldo R. and Mildred Mott Wedel, W. Raymond Wood, William J. Mayer-Oakes, Robert E. Bell, George C. Frison, Larry and Janice Tomsyck, David M. Gradwohl, Richard G. Forbis, James and Delores Gunnerson, Don G. Wyckoff, Mary Jane and Fred Schneider, Thomas Kehoe, Dale R. Henning, Stanley A. Ahler, Thomas A. Witty, Patricia J. O'Brien, Leslie B. Davis, Richard A. Krause, F. A. Calabrese, Joseph Tiffany, Donna C. Roper, Alice Kehoe, Susan Vehik, Christopher Lintz, John (Jack) W. Brink, Raymond J. DeMallie, Lawrence (Larry) Loendorf, and Mary J. Adair.

Please submit nominations by May 1, 2022, to:

John G. Hedden
Iowa Office of the State Archaeologist
700 Clinton Street Building
The University of Iowa
Iowa City, IA 52242
Email: john-hedden@uiowa.edu